

DAAD Scholarship

The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) offers a wide range of study programs in English and German that aim to educate and prepare future leaders, provide the best educational and research opportunities, and help developing countries establish advanced university systems. This organization was established in (1925) and its headquarters are located in the city of (Bonn). It has approximately (900) employees, and its budget in (2019) amounted to approximately (594) million euros. Since its establishment, this organization has financed approximately (2.6) million researchers inside and outside Germany. The organization relies on a wide network of regional offices and information centers in approximately (60) countries around the world.

Learn about Japanese MEXT scholarship

The motto of the DAAD is: Change by Exchange, where “change” means welcoming future challenges and participating in shaping them. Exchange aims to enhance understanding between countries and individuals and helps secure peace. New scientific findings help address global challenges – in line with the 2030 Agenda and the Sustainable Development Goals – and cooperation contributes to political and social progress.

DAAD Scholarship Requirements

- The DAAD scholarship is intended for students who wish to complete a full-time study programme with mandatory attendance in Germany.
- The applicant for a master's degree must have obtained a bachelor's degree within the last six years.
- Have at least two years of professional experience.
- There may be special requirements for the English or German language depending on the requirements of the chosen study programme.

-Submit an application to the university where the applicant wishes to complete his/her studies.

-The application must be submitted electronically via the DAAD application portal, where the application includes: personal information about the applicant, contact information, information about previous studies, information about the study programmes to be applied for, language skills, professional experience, future career goals.

-Translated academic documents, a motivation letter (handwritten), a research proposal (if required), a letter of recommendation, a European-style CV (handwritten).

At most higher education institutions, the application phase for the winter starting in September/October begins in early May and ends on 15 July. For the summer semester starting in March/April the application period runs from early December to 15 January. are sent out in August/September and in February/March. Rejections are often sent a little later. Private universities may have other deadlines.

Motivation letter for DAAD scholarship

A motivation letter of maximum (3) pages must be submitted, explaining the personal and professional reasons for wanting to study in Germany. The motivation letter must include the following: The applicant's academic background, skills and knowledge. In other words: information about his previous studies (degree, number of semesters...), professional experience, language skills, achievements and awards. The reasons for choosing the study program and university and the applicant's personal, academic and professional expectations (future goals) must also be written.

Learn about the British government scholarship Chevening here

DAAD Scholarship Research Proposal

A detailed research proposal (if required) must be prepared, detailing the research project that the applicant intends to work on during the DAAD grant period. This includes: the general scope of the research, the research questions, the research objectives, the scientific contribution of the research (scientific significance), the data collection methods, the anticipated difficulties related to the data collection process, and the proposed references that will be used.

Letter of recommendation for DAAD scholarship

It must be written by a university professor (i.e., a PhD holder), and the letter of recommendation must include the applicant's academic achievements, personal and academic merits, as well as the relevance of the scholarship to his or her future professional and academic orientations.

Learn about the Turkish government scholarship here

Work while studying

The student can work part-time after obtaining approval from the scholarship administration as well as the approval of the academic supervisor or study program coordinator. Also, the work must not conflict with the main objective of the scholarship. Income exceeding (450) euros per month will be deducted from the monthly scholarship salary.

Financial benefits of DAAD scholarship

- Monthly salary: (Masters students: 934 euros), (PhD students: 1300 euros).
- Health insurance.
- Travel costs may be covered.
- Free accommodation.
- One-time research allowance.

-The (DAAD) scholarship does not cover tuition fees, and although most German universities do not charge tuition fees (i.e. free), there are study programs and universities that charge fees for students, and here the applicant for any study program must make sure whether this program is free or paid.

-Under certain circumstances, the applicant may benefit from additional benefits (cash allowance and insurance) if he wishes to bring his family if the scholarship period is more than (6) months, These benefits including monthly rent subsidy and monthly allowance for accompanying members of family (about 200 euros child allowance per child; about 275 euros marriage allowance). However, if the scholarship period does not exceed (6) months, the applicant will not receive any additional financial support for his family.

Useful Links

- Access the database of academic programs and apply for them by clicking here.
- Funding programs for talented artists and musicians from here.
- Organizations that provide additional support for outstanding students from here.
- Answers to the most frequently asked questions from here.

You can start applying for the scholarship from the following link:

\(https://www.mydaad.de/en/\)

🎓 Good luck to everyone 🎓

The Last update to this file (25-1-2025), please visit the original article on the website to review the last news about this scholarship

References:

- daad.de
- studying-in-germany.org
- daadscholarship.com

Dear reader, if you find this content useful, please consider supporting us by choosing any of the following means of support, in accordance with your capabilities:

- 1-Sharing this article.
- 2-Buying my book: "Introduction to Balance Theory".
- 3-Support us directly through the following page:
Support Us
- 4-Review our services through the following page:
Our Services

THANK YOU
for your support